Back on the Hill Top

Leading makes you vulnerable, something the leaders from Seligman felt yesterday with two losses, allowing Hill to get back on top as she prefers.

Yet with two matches to go the excitement is intact, especially since the two leaders will play each other in the first match today. However they need to watch their backs with Bertheau and Lebowitz on their tail, and even Edmonds can still crash the party.

Our kibitzers are enjoying the show and though we are not here to entertain we do appreciate both your efforts in the play and the friendly banter. Keep it up in our last two matches today.

All players should enter BBO 5 minutes before the beginning of a match. The TD will direct you to your seat. All players must have their name in their BBO-profile. Private isn't allowed for the sake of opponents and kibitzers.

Diamond cut Diamond

Round 7 & 8

By Mark Horton

A situation in which two sharp-witted people interact.

In Round 7 the spectators flocked to the table where Zia and Meckstroth were in tandem – we will keep an eye on them as well as the other 11 pairs.

Board 2. Dealer East. NS Vul.

	♣ 4

Despite the poor 2-2-2-7 pattern you could bet your house that East would open 3♣. It is then a question of whether West should try 3NT. I have no idea what the answer should be, but I recall an observation by the late John Armstrong – ‘Imagine partner’s suit is ace to seven. If you have a doubleton it might be worth six tricks.’

Hill v Edmonds

WEST	NORTH	EAST	SOUTH
Hurd	Dwyer	Bathurst	Huang
—	—	3♣	Pass
3NT	All Pass

North led the ♠9 and declarer won with the jack and played two rounds of clubs. North won and switched to the ♥5, South winning and returning the four. When declarer followed with the ten North won with the king, so declarer had an overtrick, +430.

If you consider the situation to be analogous to that where a player has opened a gambling 3NT you might consider leading the ♥K followed by the jack. As long as South ducks the second round the defenders are in charge.

WEST	NORTH	EAST	SOUTH
O Rimstedt	Wooldridge	C Rimstedt	Edmonds
—	—	3♣	All Pass

South led the ♠5 and when dummy’s jack was covered by the queen declarer lost a club and two hearts, ten tricks but a 7 IMP loss.

Bertheau v Harris

WEST	NORTH	EAST	SOUTH
Harris	Zamir	Malhasyan	Toledano
—	—	3♣	All Pass

South led the ♠6 and declarer won with the king, cashed the ♣A and then played a spade to the jack, +110.

For Simon Hult playing with Gunnar Hallberg is just like playing with any other junior

With a horrible hand to lead from North went with the ♦9 and that greatly simplified declarer's task.

Dummy's jack was covered by the king and ace and declarer cashed the ♣AK, crossed to dummy with the ♠K and ran the ♦7. After drawing the last trump he played on hearts, claiming when the finesse lost, +1370 and 12 IMPs.

If North avoids leading a red suit declarer has a much harder task. After a club lead declarer wins, crosses to dummy with a spade and plays a diamond to the queen, followed by the ace.

Having eliminated the clubs declarer takes two rounds of spades, but must then cash the top hearts and exit with a diamond which endplays South. It might appear to be a guess, but if North has led a fourth-best ♣2 then declarer can count South for a 3-2-3-5 shape.

My money would be on Gunnar.

West led the ♥3 for the four, queen and king and declarer cashed the ♣A and played a second round, East winning with the third club with the king, and having seen West pitch two hearts, switched to the ♠10, declarer finishing with ten tricks after the defenders found discarding on dummy's club awkward, +430.

WEST	NORTH	EAST	SOUTH

West led the ♥3 and declarer took East's queen with the king and played a diamond to the queen. East won and returned the ♥8, West taking the ace and exiting with the six. East won and should now have played a diamond, removing dummy's entry. However, she played the ♠2 and declarer won with the ace and crossed to dummy with a diamond to run the ♣Q. That meant she finished one down, -50 and the loss of 10 IMPs.

West found the devastating lead of the ♦10, East winning with the king and returning the two to dummy's ace.
